On November 28, 1977, Silla Koteswar, Assistant Director for Supply, Indian Embassy, 2536 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., was stabbed by an unknown assailant outside the Embassy Annex. On December 1, 1977, the Indian Embassy, Washington, D. C., received a letter from a group identifying itself as the Universal Proutist Revolutionary Federation (UPRF) claiming credit for this attack and demanding the immediate and unconditional release of political prisoner P. R. Sarkar. P. R. Sarkar is the founder of Anand Marg (AM) and is currently incarcerated in India for conspiring in the murders of several former followers, who defected from AM. AM is headquartered in the United States, in Denver, Colorado. Following the stabbing of Mr. Koteswar, AM leaders in Denver, Colorado; Washington, D. C.; and elsewhere in the United States initiated contact with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, disclaiming any connection with the UPRF or any knowledge or responsibility regarding the stabbing of Mr. Koteswar or any other acts of terrorism directed at Indian establishments and personnel within the United States or elsewhere. Additionally, AM leaders in Denver and other United States cities offered to be of assistance to this Bureau in developing information regarding the UPRF attacks.

Therefore, it would appear that the AM proposes to tackle the challenge to its credibility on the part of the UPRF by cooperating with this Bureau and other law enforcement agencies in solving these UPRF-claimed attacks. It would appear that by continually denying any association with the UPRF and by publicly condemning the UPRF, the AM hopes to maintain its credibility.

[REDACTED] (S)

This Bureau is investigating incidents, which the UPRF may or may not be responsible for, but for which letters or telephone calls were received alleging UPRF responsibility, under the Act for the Protection of Foreign Officials and Official Guests of the United States. A separate domestic security or foreign counterintelligence investigation has not been instituted regarding AM or the UPRF. Therefore, this Bureau is not in a position or in possession of information to respond to Paragraphs 2, 3, and 4.

"Mr. Sarkar was charged with murder and kidnapping in seven cases, in two of which he was acquitted last month by the Patna high court. Today, another court granted him bail pending judgement in the remaining cases".

"The secretary of the sect, A.S. Awadhoot, who is also involved in the charges, was released today with Mr. Sarkar. Four other members who were charged have been acquitted."

"Mr. Sarkar, who is called "Baba", or father, was arrested on 12/29/71, by the Government of former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, which viewed his sect as subversive. In addition to being charged with killing six former disciples, Mr. Sarkar and his society were accused of espionage and insurgency, and were linked by the Gandhi Government to the United States Central Intelligence Agency. The Government subsequently banned the group".

"Mr. Sarkar, the focus of numerous protests in several cities, including Washington, has contended that his society is non-violent, and is devoted to philosophy, yoga, social and spiritual reform. Former members have charged, however, that the group is involved with sadism and homosexuality". (U)

[REDACTED] it is left to the discretion of the Denver Office as to whether this lead should be pursued under a preliminary inquiry.

The preliminary investigation conducted by the NYO does not seem to indicate that the AM is either a terrorist organization or under the direction of a foreign power as defined in the Attorney General Guidelines. There appears to be no AM chapter in the greater NY area and only one individual who may be suspected as violence prone, namely [REDACTED]

The AM was founded in 1955 by Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar, alias "Baba", and advocates the overthrow of the Government of Indian and takeover by a group called "SadviPPas," an elite section of AM. The group reportedly has indicated that such overthrow would be accomplished by bloody revolution.

In the past, the primary objective of the terrorist activity conducted by members of AM was to gain the release of their leader who was imprisoned on charges that he ordered the murders of several "defectors" from AM. However, prior to and after the release of the leader in 1978, AM has committed several acts of violence which appear to be concerned with Indian domestic issues.
